Terms and Conditions of Participation in Bugari Winter Camp 2026

§1. General provisions

1. The organiser of Bugari Winter Camp (hereinafter: the "Course") is the Accordion 360 Foundation, with its registered office in Łódź, Poland.
2. The Course takes place on 13–19 December 2026 at the Krzysztof Penderecki European Centre for Music in Lusławice.
3. These Terms and Conditions set out the rules of participation in the Course and the rights and obligations of the participants and of the Organiser.

§2. Aims of the Course

1. To raise the artistic and teaching level of the participants through individual and group classes.
2. To create a space for the exchange of experience between pupils, students and teachers.
3. To promote the accordion and to bring the music community in Poland and abroad closer together.

§3. Conditions of participation

1. A participant of the Course may be a pupil of a first- or second-level music school, a student of an art university, or a teacher.
2. Applications are made solely through the online registration form.
3. The number of places is limited; admission depends on the order of applications and on confirmation that the deposit has been paid.
4. The participation of a minor requires the written consent of a parent or legal guardian.

§4. Fees

1. The fee for participation in the Course is PLN 2,300.
2. The participant is required to pay a deposit of PLN 500 by 1 November 2026.
3. The remaining amount (PLN 1,800) must be paid by 15 November 2026 at the latest.
4. Failure to pay the deposit on time is treated as withdrawal from the Course.
5. If the participant withdraws after 15 November 2026, the deposit paid is not refunded.
6. In justified cases (for example sudden illness confirmed by a medical certificate) the Organiser may decide to refund the fee in part or in full.
7. If the Organiser cancels the Course, all funds paid are refunded to the participant.
8. Payments are to be made by bank transfer to the Organiser's account given in the application form.

§5. Course of the event

1. The classes are led by invited teachers and artists.
2. The Organiser sets the schedule of classes and makes it available to the participants before the Course begins.
3. Participants are required to arrive at their classes on time and to keep good order.

§6. Concerts

1. Concerts by the participants and by the teaching staff are held as part of the Course.
2. The decision on whether a participant may perform is taken by the teachers leading the classes.
3. The Organiser reserves the right to make audio and video recordings of the concerts and to use them publicly for documentary and promotional purposes.

§7. Rights, obligations and liability of the participant

A participant of the Course has the right:

1. To take part in all the classes provided for in the programme.
2. To safe conditions that are conducive to learning and to rest.
3. To approach the Course staff with questions, problems and suggestions.

A participant of the Course is required:

1. To observe these Terms and Conditions and to follow the instructions of the staff.
2. To attend all the classes in the programme, unless excused by the teacher or by the course director.
3. To arrive on time for classes, concerts, meals and assemblies.
4. To keep things clean and tidy, to look after personal hygiene and to take care of the property entrusted to them.
5. To treat other participants, teachers and organisers with respect.
6. To inform the staff of any illness or of feeling unwell.
7. To observe the safety rules in force at the place of accommodation and during the classes.
8. Participants who are minors may not leave the grounds of the centre without the knowledge and consent of their supervisor or of the course director.

Liability of the participant:

1. The Organiser is not liable for belongings left unattended.
2. Participants bear material liability for damage to equipment, rooms and furnishings.
3. The Organiser is not liable for chance events beyond its control (for example a participant's illness).

4. Failure to observe these Terms and Conditions, the safety rules or generally accepted standards of conduct may result in the participant being removed from the Course immediately, with no right to a refund of the fees paid.
5. Parents or guardians bear material liability for damage caused by a participant who is a minor during their stay at the Course.

§8. GDPR information

1. The controller of personal data is the Accordion 360 Foundation, with its registered office in Łódź, Poland.
2. Personal data are collected solely for the purpose of organising and running Bugari Winter Camp 2026.
3. The data will not be made available to third parties, except in the cases provided for by law.
4. Taking part in the event is treated as consent to the processing of personal data and to the use of the participant's image in documentary and promotional material (website, social media, the Organiser's publications).

§9. Obligations of the Organiser

1. The Organiser undertakes to provide the participants of the Course with the best possible conditions for learning, artistic development and rest.
2. The Organiser provides professional teaching staff to lead the classes within the Course.
3. The Organiser is responsible for preparing and making available the teaching and concert rooms in accordance with the programme of the Course.
4. The Organiser provides the participants with access to the schedule of classes and to organisational information.
5. The Organiser takes measures to ensure the safety of the participants during the Course, within the limits arising from the nature of the event.
6. The Organiser provides supervision and care for participants who are minors.

§10. Final provisions

1. In matters not governed by these Terms and Conditions, the Organiser decides.
2. The Organiser reserves the right to make changes to the programme of the Course and to the teaching staff.
3. These Terms and Conditions are accepted by ticking the relevant box in the application form. Ticking that box is equivalent to the statement: “I have read the terms and conditions of Bugari Winter Camp and I accept them”.
